Course Description
Establishing a positive and effective working alliance is essential in a supervisory relationship. This holds true for our work with SLPAs, RPE/CF and student interns. Join us for a helpful discussion that will unpack the nuances of building a strong working alliance, including managing conflict and potential ethical pitfalls. Go beyond rules and regulations as we equip ourselves to make the supervisory experience one that is growth-producing for both mentor/supervisor and mentee/supervisee.

Instructional Level: Intermediate

Learner Outcomes
At the end of this presentation, attendees will be able to:

1. As a result of this presentation, the participant will be able to identify and explain the foundational aspects of coaching and mentoring.

2. As a result of this presentation, the participant will be able to identify sources of conflict in supervision and develop a plan to manage and resolve it.

3. As a result of this presentation, participants will summarize key ethical considerations in supervision and identify ways to manage and mitigate ethical risks.

About the Speakers:
Sally has been an SLP since 2000. She has practiced in both home-health and School Districts. She is currently pursuing a clinical doctorate in speech-language pathology.

Jena is a senior speech-language pathologist with San Diego Unified School District. The years spent as a mentor/supervisor have been some of the most growth-producing years of her career. Learning how to mentor well is essential for creating positive working relationships that run deep and last beyond the supervisory experience.
